LE MOT DU DTN DE LA FFBSQ

Pour sa 5ème édition déjà, l'association Bowling Promotion et M. BIDONE organiseront les compétitions sur le sol français de la « Qubica AMF Bowling Promotion Cup ». 3 sites ont été ainsi retenus pour accueillir les épreuves du 5 au 9 octobre 2014, soit dans un ordre chronologique : RENNES, CHATEAUBRIANT et ANGERS.

Une nouvelle fois, M BIDONE personnalité atypique et ô combien originale du paysage boulistique français (ancien sportif, joueur professionnel monégasque par ailleurs, organisateur régulier de manifestations promotionnelles, communicant, formateur...) et son association relèveront le défi permanent qui est celui des responsables actuels du Comité National Bowling mais également de la fédération : redonner de l'éclat et de la notoriété, tant nationale qu'internationale, à la discipline bowling dont le développement nous tient tous à cœur...

Pour ce faire, et qu'ils en soient ici sincèrement remerciés, son équipe et lui ne ménageront ni efforts ni temps, auront à affronter difficultés et préjugés, braver les résistances du paysage audiovisuel (trop peu friand de bowling), lutter contre les a priori et les représentations (ce n'est pas ou plus un secret : 2014 devrait mettre l'accent sur les pratiquantes et jeunes féminines !).

*Michel CHOPINAUD
Directeur Technique National de la FFBSQ*

Nous voulons remercier également l'ensemble des Sponsors qui croient en notre sport et nous supportent financièrement. C'est une semaine spéciale et intense pour les joueurs...

CITY TOUR

Rennes is the administrative capital of the French department Ille-et-Vilaine. Before the French revolution, prior to the integration of the Duchy of Brittany into the Kingdom of France, Rennes was the capital of the duchy, with the other historical capitals of Brittany's Ducal period being Nantes and Vannes. It has a long history due to its location at the confluence of two rivers and its proximity to the bordering regions from which arose various challenges to the borders of Brittany.

Châteaubriant lies at the north of the Loire-Atlantique département, in the middle of a triangle between Nantes, Angers and Rennes. The town is not situated on any of the roads that link the three cities, thus, it is somewhat isolated. The closest highway, linking Rennes to Nantes, is 30 km (19 mi) far.

Angers is the historical capital of Anjou and was for centuries an important stronghold in northwestern France. It is the cradle of the Plantagenet dynasty and was during the reign of René of Anjou one of the intellectual centres of Europe. Angers developed at the confluence of three rivers, the Mayenne, the Sarthe, and the Loir, all coming from the north and flowing south to the Loire. Their confluence, just north of Angers, creates the Maine, a short but wide river that flows into the Loire several kilometers south. The Angers metropolitan area is a major economic centre in western France, particularly active in the industrial sector, horticulture, and business tourism.
