Haunted House in Châteauroux

By Arnaud Porté and Gabriel Paglia, 4ème E

In a house next to Franck's parents' house in Châteauroux, a strange story happened : once upon a time, there were three orphans, three boys who had lost their parents in a car accident. The spirit of their parents haunted the house where the three children lived. Once a brother locked his door then a spirit opened it.

One week later the second brother in the bathroom looked at himself in the mirror and saw a woman he had never seen in his life and went to tell his brothers. The next day at 11:30 pm . The three brothers lost the control of their bodies and installed three ropes on a wall and hanged themselves .

People came and found the three bodies and left to search more help and when they came back the three bodies were holding hands .
