

DIALOGUE 1 :

- Shop assistant*            Good morning. Can I help you ?
- Customer                Yes, please. I'd like to buy a T-shirt for my brother.
- Shop assistant*            How old is your brother?
- Customer                15.
- Shop assistant*            What about a Union Jack T-shirt or an underground map T shirt?
- Customer                Well... I'm not sure. He's a great fan of Harry Potter.
Do you have any Harry Potter T-shirts?
- Shop assistant*            I've got a nice Gryffindor hoodie for £32(thirty-two pounds) or a Gryffindor T-shirt for £16 (sixteen pounds).
- Customer                I'll take the hoodie.
- Shop assistant*            What size do you need? Small, medium or large?
- Customer                medium, please.
- Shop assistant*            Here you are!
- Customer                Thank you.

DIALOGUE 2 :

Shop assistant            Good afternoon. Can I help you?

Customer                Yes, please. I'd like to buy a present for my little sister.

Shop assistant            Did you have anything in mind?

Customer                Maybe something for school.

Shop assistant            We've got "I love London" pencil-cases, a skyline ruler, vintage London notebooks....

Customer                Oh ! These London guard pens are cute. How much are they?

Shop assistant            They're £ 0.50 (50 pence) each.

Customer                Wow that's cheap! I'll take six pens and two notebooks.

Shop assistant            Shall I put them in a gift bag?

Customer                Yes, please.

DIALOGUE 3 :

Shop assistant            Good morning, can I help you?

Customer                Yes, please; I'm looking for a souvenir for my mother.
She's very fond of tea.

Shop assistant            What about a teapot? We've got some really original ones.

Customer                Good idea! This one is really nice. How much is it?

Shop assistant            £ 65. (sixty-five pounds)

Customer                That's a bit expensive....

Shop assistant            What about a tea tin?
Let me show you this pack of three mini tea tins called "traditions of Britain": there's a red bus, a pillar box and a telephone box.

Customer                It's lovely! How much is it?

Shop assistant            £ 9.50 (nine pounds fifty)

Customer                Great! She'll love it!