

AH1 History of Art /AM1 Study of the human proportions

Intervenients: Students of Arts

Date : mars, april, may 2017

Place: School

Nr of students: 28

Skills targeted:

- Drawing the human body
- To decorate school and make its surroundings nicer
- Investigate proportions of the human body.
- Analyze the measurements for relationships between parts of the body

Aims and description:

- Explore art
- Drawing the human body
- Investigate proportions of the human body.
- Apply knowledge of proportions of human body to draw people in various positions.

In this activity students studied the human proportions in different parts of the body. Students calculated different heights of people, and of parts of the body in class and they analyzed the relationship of the human body with the artistic field. After they drew the human body

Results / Outcomes: Draws of a human body

