

WANTED / SLEEPER

AN HOLLOWPOINT SETTING

We're part of the Fraternity, the American Society of Super Villains who rules the world.

Remember: "there is a secret base with aliens in Area 51 but THEY don't want you to know", "THEY put drugs in water to be sure you keep watching TV." We are THEY, the fucking Kings of the World.

Super heroes? Na, stop reading comics. In fact they exist but we won. In 1986 we killed most of them and brainwashed the others. They think they are actors who played Superheroes in movies. Yeah man, Robert Downey Jr is the Real Ironman except that he doesn't remember it. Funny isn't it?

Powers are just a way to use Attributes. You can use big claws to kill, telepathy to convince and so forth. Traits encourages cool ways to use your powers.

Traits Questionary

The coolest thing you do with your powers / skills?

I really shine when I use mine. I wear black spandex, what else? I'm a fucking white ninja in the night.

Things you will never do.

Harm pets, drink during a mission, let fellows in danger.

Your moment of glory.

That time when I splashed the Greenman's head.

Secret origins.

Guard in a Nuclear plant, little girl bitten by a radioactive gay, Ex-prisoner turned cyborg...

The last trait should be created on the fly.

WANTED / SLEEPER

AN HOLLOWPOINT SETTING

The Mission

XXX ray is a mole for TAO, a man who pulls the strings in the secret war between the monarchies. PCs will have to find a supertech device stolen by XXXRay

They find Prof Solomon Seltzer pissed.

"- What's up Doc?

- Triple X Ray stole the dimension module.

- That little piece of shit! But why? You think it's Dr Rictus or The Emperor?

-Dunno. But we need to get it back.

- Wait a minute. What is this dimension module?

- It's a device designed to open a breach in the bleed.

- The what?

- The Bleed, the space between dimensions. With it, we can get unlimited access to alternative dimensions. We could loot on infinite Earths!

- Oh Okay, then?

- First you find triple X Ray. Then you find the module and punish the bastards behind this crap."

Opposition

XXX Ray's not a real threat. He's just a nerd with an X-ray vision. He's a coward and will flee to view.

Blackwolf. He's black, he's a werewolf. He thinks that's doing him cool. He's vicious and bloodthirsty. Use Terror or Kill.

Black guards. Top operatives in TAO's organization. They are nothing but enhanced guys with a black costume and a lot of guns.

Peter Grim. Remember the monster in room when you were a kid? Well he's back and he enjoys scaring you. The bastard touches you, you will feel like your worst nightmare is real. If it wasn't enough the guy got superstrength and he's bulletproof. He's Terror but he can KILL you if he had no choice.
