

Name	Home	Job	Age	Social Status	Physical Description	Personality	Link with other characters	Speech language
Miss Skeeter (Eugenia Phelan)	Jackson in Mississippi. She lives with her parents in a big house in a cotton plantation.	Writer and journalist.	23 years old.	White woman quite privilege quite rich. Belongs to the junior league and she is the editor.	White woman. Skinny and tall, her hair is yellow and cut short above her shoulders because she gets frizzy hair looks serious, blue eyes, not elegant.	Ambitious, she understands the situation of black maids self. Conscious (socially conscious). She smokes.	Miss Hilly's friend. Miss Leefolt's friend. They have been friends for a long time but now they have different opinions. Her maid, Constantine raised her. She disagrees with Miss Hilly's colored bathroom bill.	Very good English because she's a journalist.
Miss Elizabeth Leefolt (name)	She lives on her own house (quite small) with her husband and daughter.	Housewife.	23 years old.	She is between rich and poor, lower, middle class.	Skinny. Spindly, hair is brown, very serious never has smile on her face? Pointy chin. Rich class. She worries.	Angry, jealous, arrogant, nervous, disrespectful, anxious. She wants to love by Miss Hilly. She is very narcissistic anxious, disrespectful with Aibileen, doesn't take care of her daughter	She is influenced by Miss Hilly. She is the mother of Mae Mobley and the Raleigh's wife.	She speaks English.

Mae Mobley Leefolt	She lives on Elizabeth Leefolt's house. She lives (in) with her parents.	No job.	2 years old.	She belongs to the upper class.	She has big brown eye and honey color curls. She's a baby.	She's a little girl who seems kind and she's very close with her help. Aibileen and who doesn't really care of her. She has a lack from her parents particularly.	She's a baby of Miss Leefolt. Aibileen takes care of? She's Miss Leefolt: daughter.	She doesn't speak very well but Aibileen tries to teach her how to speak.
Trelore	Lived in a flat (Foley St.)	Died in an accident while working.	Died at 24.	African-American working class poor.	Wore big glasses, small skinny.	Intellectual. Had started writing a book. Educated. Good school results. Socially conscious.	Frances (His girls friend). Aibileen (his mother).	He must have been speaking good standard English (his language seemed very good to Aibileen).
Raleigh Leefolt	Lived in a flat (Foley St.)	Business (not really make much money).	Quite young.	African-American working class poor.	?	We can think he shares his wife's ideas about African-American in Mississippi.	Married to Miss Leefolt. Mae Mobley's father.	?
Aibileen	?	Housemaid. A help.	50/60 years old.	Working class. African-American.		Generous, takes care of white children? Likes Mae Mobley a lot (my special baby). She's like her surrogate mother. Sensitive. She accepts the way Miss Leefolt treat her without speaking her maid. She thinks it is stupid. Ask a colored maid if she would like to change things, it is not realistic to hope to also. She is less accepting since her son died. Accepts her condition because she has no choice but knows it is revolving.

--	--	--	--	--	--	---	--	--

Get rid of : se débarrasser de