

⑥ According to me, art is a way to express our feelings or to <sup>pass on</sup> convey a message(s) that <sup>which is</sup> is important to the creator. It can be funny, <sup>denunciatory</sup> denunciatory, or sad, but <sup>as long as</sup> in the case where the spectators/audience feels the same thing <sup>than</sup> as the artist, it's a good piece of art. It can be technical or just nice to see, it <sup>will</sup> still be art if the artist <sup>pleasant</sup> considers it ~~like that~~ that way.

Art is a <sup>means of expressing</sup> way to express our feelings, emotions. You can make art with barely anything. It can also be a way to escape <sup>(from)</sup> reality, <sup>be in a</sup> in a different universe <sup>which is</sup> which is your own world. <sup>float/dive</sup>

Without art, you are an undead person.
 You | are dead
      | die
      | perish

For me, Art is a way to express yourself, you can transmit what is in your mind, and you can ~~all~~ <sup>convey</sup> illustrate messages as well for the ~~viewer~~ viewer.

Art is also fun to practice.
