

Hi, I'm Miss Conrard, your new English teacher this year and honestly speaking, I tend to be a bit nosy...☺
So... could you possibly answer the following questions, making sentences as much as possible?
Don't be afraid of making mistakes cos' you will not be the only one!
Nobody's perfect...therefore, DO YOUR BEST ☺

Could you introduce yourself in a few lines?

(first name, last name, age, where you are from, siblings (number and ages), passions (hobbies...)...

Could you tell me about your studies last year?

(what section, where...)

In a few words, why have you decided to apply for the AUDIOVISUAL INDUSTRY section? Which option are you in (tick the correct answer). Have you already decided on a probable future career path?

- Production management
- Sound recording
- Video and image recording
- Editing
- Engineering technician

Could you possibly try to rate your level at English in the following grid?

Do you consider English as a nightmare or can you say that you feel at-ease with this foreign language? Be precise...

	A2	B1	B2	C1
Oral comprehension
Written comprehension
Written expression
Speaking

Do you practice or listen to English on a daily basis? How? How often?

What do you expect from your English lessons and teacher this year? Which topic, field would you like to revise, discover, work on? Feel free to ask for anything!
