

Mr Deby's election campaign of shame

Young graduates for the change of three provinces including Wadi-Fira, Ennedi-East and Ennedi-West are seeing an election campaign of shame. An election campaign is the basis, a period during which a political party presents its social project to the population to collect votes and the population of naturally adhering to it. But in the ruling party, the Patriotic Salvation Movement, is something else entirely. Indeed, Mr Deby and his collaborators have made this 2021 election campaign a purchase of collective conscience, a binding membership for some, a pass-right for others. In short, all means such as public services and all of Chad's resources are used to organize binding political meetings.

The young graduates of these three provinces inform national and international opinion, political actors, the press, independent observers, Chadian citizens that Mr. Deby has put all the means of the state including rolling means, national television, state treasury, part of the national army's salary and justice at the disposal of his Party for his re-election. In addition, an electoral commission tailor-made for his party is set up to win over and steal the electorate. Mr. Deby, how can we do this?

As an evidence, when holding meetings in a major city such as N'Djamena or Doba, the government forces the population to stop all economic activities to attend the party meeting, taxi driver motorcycles are paid to 10 000 FCFA of the public treasury to attend the meeting, young people and women who are less aware have been given yellow helmets of the MPS brand to attend the party meeting. In addition, the most reluctant young people were paid 2,000 FCFA tickets to attend the party meeting.

In addition, many of the state's rolling means such as office vehicles for civil servants, military vehicles and secret services are made available to revered senior MPS officials to move several activists to party political meetings. The same activists who travel inside the country to attend meetings.

Even further, on the instruction of Mr. Deby, the national TV, ONRTV, is made available to the MPS to accompany its election campaign by vulgarly broadcasting the images during the trips if not the speeches and words of the Party President, the Secretary General, campaign managers and many other influential activists of the party.

To finance his campaign, Mr. Deby uses not only the state fund but also the salaries of the national army. Several sources confirm that the salaries of the soldiers in March were subtracted a sum of 2 000 CFA francs from each soldier to finance the campaign. This is unacceptable.

Mr. Deby also forced several of the businessmen to make a significant contribution to the financing of the campaign through financial means or travel materials. It is a well-thought-out system put in place by Mr. Deby because he and his collaborators were awarding public contracts to businessmen in the area without any procurement procedures. And they also allowed some businessmen not to pay taxes. But they were waiting for them to finance the election campaign. This is all illegal and unhealthy.

Dear Chadian youth, this is how the Mr Deby makes a dishonest election campaign and a meeting by force. An election campaign is supposed to convince an electorate with a cohesive discourse of your politics, but Mr. Deby mobilizes his activists by fear, coercion, and the purchase of conscience. It is a campaign of shame, Mr. Deby.

Mr. Deby, you have governed for 30 years and you cannot get 1000 people together without spending colossal means not to organize your meeting but rather to pay your activists and motorcycle taxi drivers to come and attend your meeting. It is a campaign of shame.

Mr. Deby, you have governed for 30 years and you cannot give a cohesive, dynamic, and convincing speech during your election campaign but rather insults against your fellow citizens of damboula, stray dog, jackal, etc. It is a campaign of shame.

Dear Chadian youth, now that you knew how Mr. Deby was trained to run a campaign of force, you still must hold your destiny and destined for you. You had to be vigilant in the face of this shame campaign. You do not have to vote for Mr. Deby as you do not have to vote for anyone. So, go out on April 11, 2021 not to vote but rather to express your anger and boycott this electoral charade. Together we will make Chad ungovernable until Deby's departure because he has made our country unlivable.

The coordination of the young graduates for the change of these three provinces will come to you in another press release to explain in detail how Mr. Deby intends to win and steal the election of April 11, 2021 but for now please withdraw your voter cards so as not to leave them at Mr. Deby's disposal and will vote in his favor using your cards.

Freedom will be born of your courage!
